

Do not further deregulate Media ownership. As an advertising agency, we see how this not only limits the variety of programming and opinions available to the public it also limits the options of advertisers. In addition, it drives costs up for advertisers and thus for consumers. Thank you!